Background

A personnel file is to be maintained for each employee in the Division. The file is to be located in the Division Office as a private and confidential record. All items contained in the file are to be with the knowledge of the employee.

The Human Resources Supervisor shall be responsible for the administration and maintenance of employee files as well as decision-making regarding access to employee information.

Procedures

1. Employee access to personnel files is permitted subject to the following:
 - 1.1 A request by an employee to view his/her file is to be directed to the Human Resources Supervisor or designate.
 - 1.2 Arrangements will be made for an appropriate time to view the file.
 - 1.3 The file is to be examined in the presence of the Human Resources Supervisor or designate.
 - 1.4 The file may not be removed from the Division Office.
 - 1.5 The employee may request duplication of any material contained in the file.
 - 1.6 The employee may request, in writing, correction of the personal information contained in the record if the person believes that there is an error or omission.
2. For purposes related to the administration and maintenance of existing or proposed activities or programs of the Division, access to employee information and files shall be given to the following:
 - 2.1 Authorized Human Resources staff;
 - 2.2 The immediate supervisor of an employee and those who have departmental authority over the employee, with the approval of the Human Resources Supervisor or designate.
3. Information contained in the personnel file should be current and relevant to employment and shall include the following:
 - 3.1 Application for employment including resume
 - 3.2 Emergency contact form
 - 3.3 Signed letters of acceptance of offers of employment
 - 3.4 Criminal Record and Vulnerable Sector checks and supportive documentation
